ETHICS CASE PROCEDURES

INTRODUCTION

The Center for Credentialing & Education, Inc. (CCE) develops and promotes high ethical standards. CCE requires that CCE credential holders and applicants meet these standards. The following disciplinary procedures are the rules for processing possible violations of these ethical standards. These rules are applicable to CCE credential holders and those who are seeking credentialing from CCE. This document describes and outlines the only procedures for handling ethics cases brought to the attention of CCE. When candidates apply for CCE credentialing or renewal, they agree to abide by the CCE policies, including any applicable Code of Ethics and the CCE Ethics Case Procedures. In addition, CCE credential holders and those seeking credentials agree that: these procedures are a fair process for resolving all ethics matters; they will be bound by decisions made pursuant to these procedures; these procedures are governed by the principles of the laws of the State of North Carolina; and these procedures do not constitute a contract between CCE and the credential holder or applicant.

SECTION A: GENERAL

1. CCE Process: These procedures identify the means to resolve ethical concerns regarding an applicant or credential holder’s conduct. CCE has the exclusive authority to end any ethics inquiry or case regardless of circumstances. By applying for credentials or renewal, individuals voluntarily agree that they will abide by the identified code and will not challenge the results of any CCE action taken under these policies in a legal or government forum. The CCE Ethics Case Procedures are not formal legal proceedings, therefore, many legal rules and practices are not observed. CCE will review the pertinent information presented when considering ethics matters.

The CCE Ethics Case Procedures are designed to operate without the assistance of attorneys. Anyone may be represented by an attorney with respect to ethics proceedings and procedures, at the individual’s sole expense. However, if a party has retained an attorney, that individual’s legal counsel may be directed to communicate with CCE only through CCE Legal Counsel. The individuals are encouraged to communicate directly with CCE.

2. Participants: Ethics cases may be decided by the CCE director of ethics, the CCE Board of Directors Ethics Appeals Committee (Board Ethics Appeals Committee) and/or any representative designated by the CCE President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or authorized by these procedures. A CCE credential holder or applicant who is the subject of an ethics grievance or inquiry, will be, and is identified as, the respondent in these rules. The person(s) initiating an ethics grievance concerning a credential holder or applicant will be, and is identified as, the grievant(s).

3. Grievant: Any person(s), or in appropriate cases, CCE may initiate an ethics inquiry and act as a grievant.

4. Statement of Grievance: A grievant other than CCE must (a) contact the CCE Ethics Department and request a Statement of Grievance, the identified form that provides CCE details regarding the concerns about the certificant or applicant; (b) provide the information requested; and (c) submit the completed Statement of Grievance to the CCE director of ethics. Each Statement of Grievance must include a detailed written description of the facts regarding the grievance(s). CCE will also forward to the grievant a copy of the respective ethical standards and the Ethics Case Procedures.

5. Time Requirements: CCE will make every effort to follow the time requirements described in this document. However, CCE's failure to meet a time requirement will not prohibit the final resolution of any ethics matter. Grievants and respondents are required to comply with all time requirements specified in this document. Time extensions or postponements may be granted by the CCE president and CEO or CCE director of ethics if a timely written request explains a reasonable cause.

6. Litigation/Other Proceedings: CCE may accept and resolve ethics grievances when civil, criminal litigation or other proceedings related to the grievance have been, or are presently, before a court, regulatory agency, or professional organization. CCE may also continue or delay ethics reviews in such cases.

7. Grievances Concerning Non-Credential Holders and Non-Applicants: In the event that CCE receives a Statement of Grievance or obtains information concerning an individual who is not a current applicant or credential holder, CCE may refer the grievant to an appropriate authority.

8. Improper Disclosure/False or Misleading Responses: Any applicant or credential holder who provides a misleading disclosure or who fails to disclose all pertinent information with respect to a civil, criminal or disciplinary proceeding or similar matter may be committing a violation, which may result in credential ineligibility.

9. Time Limitations Concerning Complaints: CCE may consider any disclosed matter or grievance regardless of: (a) whether the respondent held a CCE credential at the time of the asserted violation; (b) when the asserted violation occurred; or (c) whether the respondent continues to hold or seek a CCE credential during the course of any ethics case.

10. Confidentiality: In order to protect the privacy of individuals in an ethics case, all material prepared by or submitted to CCE will be confidential. An exception will be made if a release of information or documents is authorized by these rules. The identities of all members of the Ethics Consultative Committee and the Board Ethics Appeals Committee shall remain confidential and will not be released without the specific authorization of each committee member.
Until an ethics case has been closed or finalized pursuant to Section M, all individuals must maintain the confidentiality of all information related to the ethics case, including its existence, consistent with these rules. If anyone discloses information related to the ethics case contrary to these rules, the CCE president and CEO, the director of ethics, or the Board Ethics Appeals Committee may terminate the ethics grievance if such disclosure is by the grievant; or may impose any sanction included within these rules if such disclosure is made by the respondent.

11. Failure to Cooperate: If any individual refuses to fully cooperate or participate with CCE or its representatives, and it is determined that the lack of cooperation was without good cause, CCE may take the following actions: (a) the CCE president and CEO, director of ethics and/or Board Ethics Appeals Committee may terminate the ethics review of an uncooperative grievant; (b) if a respondent is uncooperative, the director of ethics and/or Board Ethics Appeals Committee may impose any sanction included within these rules. No appeal of such CCE actions is permitted.

12. Resignation from CCE: Should a respondent attempt to relinquish a CCE credential or withdraw an application during the course of any ethics inquiry or case, CCE reserves the right to continue the matter to a final resolution according to these rules. CCE may require that a credential holder agree to conditions related to the relinquishment of a credential.

SECTION B: INFORMAL RESOLUTION

1. Cases Appropriate for Informal Resolution: The director of ethics will receive the Statement of Grievance. The director of ethics will consider the seriousness of the grievance, the respondent’s background, prior conduct, and any other pertinent material, and make a decision concerning the likelihood that the matter can be resolved fairly without formal disciplinary proceedings as described in these rules. Ethics cases concerning charges issued by a regulatory agency or professional organization, and those involving criminal or civil litigation, are not appropriate for informal resolution.

2. Informal Resolution Determination: Should the director of ethics determine that a particular ethics matter is appropriate for informal resolution and the grievant and respondent agree, the director of ethics will attempt to resolve the dispute to a fair conclusion.

3. Successful Informal Resolution: In the event of successful informal resolution, the director of ethics will prepare a report summarizing the terms and forward it to the individuals involved. An informal resolution of an ethics matter may not be appealed after the acceptance of the report by all individuals involved in the ethics case.

4. Unsuccessful Informal Resolution: In the event of unsuccessful informal resolution, the director of ethics will refer the case for resolution consistent with these procedures.

SECTION C: SUBMISSION OF STATEMENT OF ETHICS GRIEVANCE
Statement of Ethics Grievance: In order for CCE to consider a grievance, a grievant, other than the CCE, must complete a Statement of Ethics Grievance, including all information required by the form and submit it to the CCE director of ethics. The Statement of Ethics Grievance is a formal written communication from a grievant describing in detail the concerns regarding a CCE credential holder or applicant, and is the only form of grievance submission accepted. Documents such as government agency complaints or decisions, court complaints or decisions, or other public documents or materials, may be submitted in support of a Statement of Ethics Grievance, or may serve as the basis of an ethics inquiry initiated by CCE.

When a completed Statement of Ethics Grievance is received by CCE, the director of ethics will: (a) review the material received and assign a case number to the matter; (b) review the grievance(s) made; (c) determine whether the grievance(s) is presented in sufficient detail to permit CCE to conduct a preliminary inquiry; and if necessary, (d) contact the grievant and request additional factual material. The director of ethics will send a letter to the grievant and respondent stating whether the grievance(s) submitted is accepted or rejected for a formal ethics review.

SECTION D: ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION OF ETHICS GRIEVANCES

1. Acceptance of Statement of Ethics Grievance: The director of ethics will review each grievance presented in the Statement of Ethics Grievance and then determine if it will become the subject of a formal ethics review. The following criteria will be considered to determine if a grievance is accepted or rejected: (a) whether the respondent is a CCE credential holder or applicant; (b) whether a proven grievance would constitute a violation of the applicable Code of Ethics; (c) whether the passage of time since the possible violation requires that the grievance be rejected; (d) whether relevant, reliable information or proof concerning the grievance is available; (e) whether the grievant is willing to provide proof or other information to CCE concerning the grievance; and (f) whether the grievance appears to be supportable, considering the proof available to CCE.

The director of ethics will determine whether the grievance(s) and available information support the issuance of a formal ethics complaint notification.

2. Rejection of Statement of Ethics Grievance: If the director of ethics determines that a Statement of Ethics Grievance should not become the subject of a formal ethics complaint, the director of ethics will reject the grievance(s). The director of ethics will notify the grievant and respondent of the rejection and the reasons for it in writing.

3. Appeal of Grievance Rejection: Within thirty (30) days of the mailing date of a grievance rejection letter, the grievant may appeal the rejection of the Statement of Ethics Grievance to the CCE president and CEO. In order to have the CCE president and CEO consider this appeal, a grievant must state in writing the following: (a) the procedural errors possibly made by the director of ethics with respect to the grievance rejection, if any; (b) the specific provisions of the applicable Code of Ethics believed violated; and (c) the specific information believed to support the acceptance of the grievances(s).

The CCE president and CEO will consider any grievance rejection and issue a final decision, which cannot be appealed.

CCE Ethics Case Procedures: Amended February 8, 2013
SECTION E: INITIATION OF ETHICS COMPLAINTS AND INQUIRIES

Ethics Complaint Notifications: After an ethics grievance is accepted for formal inquiry, the director of ethics will issue an Ethics Complaint Notification identifying each Code of Ethics violation alleged and the basis for each. This notification will be delivered to the respondent and the grievant at the last known address(es) by regular mail and other verifiable delivery service, return receipt requested, and will be marked, “Confidential.”

SECTION F: RESPONSE TO THE ETHICS COMPLAINT NOTIFICATION

1. Submitting an Ethics Complaint Response: Within thirty (30) days of the mailing date of an ethics complaint notification, the respondent must submit a written response according to the instructions in the notification. The response must include the following: (a) a full answer to each item identified in the complaint; (b) the identification and a copy of each document that the respondent believes to be relevant to the resolution of the ethics complaint; and (c) any other information that the respondent believes will assist CCE in considering the ethics complaint fairly.

2. Response Deficiencies: The director of ethics may require the respondent to supplement or expand a response.

3. Optional Reply to Ethics Complaint Response: The director of ethics will forward a copy of the submitted response to the grievant within approximately ten (10) days following of its receipt by CCE. The grievant may submit a reply to the response by letter or similar document within ten (10) days of the mailing date of the response to the grievant. If submitted, this reply must fully explain any additional information that the grievant wishes to present to the director of ethics concerning the ethics complaint response. If more information is submitted, the respondent will receive a copy and will have ten (10) days to provide a final response.

SECTION G: PRELIMINARY ACTIONS

1. Voluntary Temporary Suspension of Credential: At any time following the issuance of an ethics complaint, the respondent may be asked to agree to a temporary suspension of any CCE credential, pending the final resolution. If the respondent accepts this request, he or she will sign a voluntary suspension agreement. This agreement will state the temporary suspension and that the respondent voluntarily ceases from representing himself or herself as credentialed by CCE until further notice. The respondent will also return any credentials to CCE to be held until the ethics matter has reached a final resolution.

2. Involuntary Suspension of Credential: If a respondent fails to agree to and sign a Voluntary Suspension Agreement, pursuant to Section G.1 (above), the director of ethics, the president and CEO or the Board Ethics Appeals Committee may involuntarily suspend the respondent's credential(s) pending the final resolution of the complaint.

3. Circumstances of Involuntary Suspension Actions: Suspensions are authorized where: (a) the respondent has been convicted of a criminal or quasi-criminal act; or the respondent has not contested a criminal indictment under any statute, law or rule; (b)
the respondent has been indicted or similarly charged with any criminal act or violation of criminal law under statute, law or rule; (e) the respondent has been found in violation of any law, regulation or rule by a professional regulatory organization, or has been sanctioned or disciplined by such a regulatory organization; (d) the respondent is the subject of a formal complaint or inquiry by a professional regulatory organization; (e) the respondent has been found in violation of an ethics code of a professional association or certifying organization; (f) the respondent is the subject of a formal complaint or similar charge and inquiry by a professional association or certifying organization concerning ethics or disciplinary matters, or (g) the respondent is the subject of litigation pertaining to professional practice.

4. Other Preliminary Actions: The director of ethics, the president or CEO, or the Board Ethics Appeals Committee may require the respondent to do or to refrain from doing certain acts by preliminary and temporary action, including the disclosure and submission of documents relevant to the ethics review. Any temporary and preliminary action requested will be reasonably related to the complaint under consideration or to an individual's responsibilities under the applicable Code of Ethics.

5. Failure to Comply with Preliminary Actions: The director of ethics, the president and CEO or the Board Ethics Appeals Committee may discipline a respondent who fails to comply with a temporary or preliminary action. The director of ethics, the president and CEO, or the Board Ethics Appeals Committee will consider the severity of the failure to comply and other relevant factors in determining the discipline. Preliminary and temporary actions cannot be appealed.

SECTION H: ETHICS CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE

1. Ethics Consultative Committee: The president and CEO shall appoint a committee of individuals who serve as a professional resource for the director of ethics and the president and CEO. At the direction of the president and CEO or the director of ethics, this committee may be consulted for the purpose of reviewing confidential ethics case material that may or may not be incorporated with final decisions or appeals.

2. Meetings of the Ethics Consultative Committee: Ethics Consultative Committee meetings will be scheduled by the director of ethics. Each committee meeting will be held via telephone conference.

3. Participation of CCE Legal Counsel: CCE legal counsel will be present at an ethics consultative committee meeting if possible.

SECTION I: COMPLAINT RESOLUTION

1. CCE Director of Ethics Resolution of Complaints: The director of ethics will consider the matter under these procedures, resolve the ethics complaint, and issue a final decision and action. The grievant or the respondent may request the opportunity to make an oral presentation to the director of ethics, who will have full authority to convene and preside over the oral presentation.

and (g) the revocation of any CCE credential held by the respondent, which shall include the requirements that the respondent return to CCE all original or copied credential materials, and to immediately stop any and all professional identification or affiliation with CCE.

2. Referral and Notification Action. CCE may notify appropriate government or professional organizations of any final disciplinary action taken against a respondent by sending a copy of the decision issued by the director of ethics, the president and CEO or the Board Ethics Appeals Committee. Such notification may be sent by CCE at any point after the time period for the respondent to appeal an adverse decision has lapsed. CCE will not notify governmental and professional organizations until after a final ruling on the case has been made, if necessary. During an appeal period, CCE may respond to inquiries concerning ethics cases, and may indicate the existence of such proceedings.

3. Publication of Disciplinary Action. Following the lapse of any appeal rights and upon case closure, CCE may publish or release a final decision following the issuance of an adverse director of ethics, president and CEO or Board Ethics Appeals Committee decision or ruling. Any interested individual may request publication of any final decision, consistent with these procedures. However, the director of ethics, president and CEO, or Board Ethics Appeals Committee may deny such requests, and such decisions cannot be appealed.

Any appeals received beyond this time period will not be reviewed or considered by the Board Ethics Appeals Committee.

2. Events That Will Cause a CCE Ethics Case Decision and Action to Become Final: An ethics case decision that is not appealed in accordance with these procedures will become final. The decisions of the Board Ethics Appeals Committee are final, and no further appeals are available.

SECTION N: REINSTATEMENT PROCEDURES

1. Reinstatement Requests Following Credential Revocation: Five (5) years after the issuance of a final revocation action issued under these rules, a respondent may submit a Request for Credential Reinstatement to the CCE Board of Directors, consistent with the requirements of Section N.4 (below).

2. Reinstatement Requests Following Credential Suspension: After the expiration of a final suspension action issued under these rules, a respondent may submit a Request for Credential Reinstatement to the CCE Board of Directors, consistent with the requirements of Section N.4 (below).

3. Reinstatement Following Credential Probation: Following the expiration of a probation action, the director of ethics will determine whether the respondent has satisfied the terms of the probation and will do the following: (a) if the respondent has satisfied the terms of probation in full, CCE, via the CCE director of ethics, will immediately verify that the probation has been completed and reinstate the practitioner to full credential status; or (b) if the respondent has not satisfied the terms of probation in full, the director of ethics or the CCE president and CEO will refer the case to the final decision-maker for review and action consistent with these rules, including but not limited to continuation of the probation and/or issuance of additional disciplinary or remedial actions concerning the probation terms.

5. Board of Directors Reinstatement Request Review: Within ninety (90) days after the submission of a complete reinstatement request, or as soon after as practical, the Board of Directors will schedule and conduct a hearing to decide the reinstatement request. Each reinstatement petition will be considered by a quorum of the Board. During these deliberations, the Board will review the information presented by the respondent and any other relevant information. The Board will then determine the final outcome of the appeal by majority vote in closed session.

6. Board of Directors Reinstatement Request Decisions and Action: Within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the Board of Directors’ review of a reinstatement request, or as soon as practical, the Board, by the Board Chair or the CCE president and CEO, will prepare and issue a decision with respect to the reinstatement request. The final Board decision and action will indicate whether the reinstatement request is granted, denied, or continued to a later date. If appropriate, the decision and action will indicate any conditions of credentialing or renewal. Copies of the Board of Directors’ decision and action will be sent to the individuals involved, via U.S. mail, return receipt requested, or by another appropriate delivery method. While no appeal of the Board’s decision and action is permitted by CCE, the respondent may submit a new reinstatement request pursuant to this section, two (2) years or more after the issuance of the Board decision and action.
